

“By God’s grace, we are committed to encourage and resource our growing family of churches to reflect Jesus Christ.”

Join us!

Plan to join with others from Lower Pacific District family for two days of fellowship, prayer, learning together, and celebrating what God is doing in our churches.

Comments from past conferences

- ◇ Loved it—Stories teach practical aspect to life and ministry
- ◇ Excited and encouraged in discipleship
- ◇ Gives me a lot to think about for my own spiritual formation and health
- ◇ A reality check on where we are as individuals and as a church
- ◇ Loved hearing pastor’s sharing their success and struggles
- ◇ Enjoyed getting to know the co-workers of the LPD family, strengthened the sense of belonging to the big family

Conference Speakers

As EFCC leaders met in June of 2016, we sought the Lord as to his calling for our movement in the season ahead. It was unanimous among us that God is calling us to live and to share the Gospel.

In one sense, this is a “no-brainer.” If we are honest, however, we have been better at speaking about the Gospel than living or sharing it, and by God’s grace we can and must do better.

Neil Bassingthwaighe, EFCC National Mission Director has recently conducted a survey among EFCC pastors, and has learned much from their responses as to how we can encourage and resource one another towards greater effectiveness.

Phil Harris, Congregational Life Pastor at Johnston Heights has been involved in the ministry of evangelism for many years. He has been trained in Evangelism Explosion and other resources, but has learned that methods all have their limitations. He has come to discern five biblical principles for making and multiplying disciples, both at home and overseas, and has been seeing multiplying disciples made through what they call the Harvest Movement.
